GRAND VALLEY WOODTURNERS

Minutes of the Grand Valley Woodturners

November 11, 2008

Eleventh meeting of 2008

-The meeting started at 7:15 p.m. in buck Taylor's shop in Grand Junction. Thanks to Buck and his wife for the goodies and hospitality.

-Directors present: Keith Kollasch (President), Ed Westimere, (Vice President), David Kelly (Secretary), Buck Taylor (Treasurer), Tim Austin (Newsletter)

-Attendees: Chuck Dewey, Clarence Fivecoate, Dennis Forster, Cliff Moore, Steve Miller, Don E. Smith.

-Tim had hard copies of the newsletter available.

-Keith opened the meeting and spoke about the Holiday Party meeting in December. This will be held at Buck's house on December 9th. We are to bring our spouses and finger foods. Buck's wife said she will provide plates and utensils.

-During the December meeting, the next year's officers need to be voted on. Keith asked for the members to think about what they would like to volunteer to do. All the officers need to be members of the AAW. So, if you are interested in being a board member, get your AAW membership in. The rest of us also need to renew our AAW memberships before 2009.

-GVWT membership needs to be paid before 2009. This will be collected at the December meeting.

-Keith spoke about the Desert Wood Symposium in Mesa, Arizona, February 6-8. This show will have a number of renowned woodturners doing demos.

-For the Cane Project, we had three vets come and receive their canes. Greg Rowlett, Hal Frisch, and Joe D. Raff were presented canes from Buck. They each voiced their appreciation for the recognition.

-The members brought in Christmas ornaments they had turned. We had a show and tell. We passed the ornaments around for everyone to look at. There were discussions of the how, what wood, and finish.

-Next month's (December) challenge from Ed "Vessel with a lid".

-Next meeting—December 9

-Meeting ended at 8:30 p.m.
